How a Job Seeker Ms. Anju Nayak became the Bread earner for her family members?

(A Story of Anju Nayak- a successful participant of training organized by NBCFDC for DNT Category)

Beauty culture & Beauty Therapist are the services after Indian Beauties were crowned as Miss World and Miss Universe. Since then, such beauty enhancer centers are getting established in every nook & corner of urban and semi urban areas as well as in villages.

Since this is a service which expects high precision and skill, many girls and women are unable to enter into this service even after much interest and inclination. Ms Anju Nayak of Khandwa was one such girl who had such aspiration, but lacked training and confidence to venture into this activity. She was more hesitant as she belonged to DNT Category. At her personal level she tried to get training in Beauty Therapy at different centers, but everybody refused her on different counts.

At such a juncture, NBCFDC came to her support by offering one Entrepreneurship cum Skill Development Programme (ESDP) in Assistant Beauty Therapist trade at Khandwa from 08.03.2019 to 08.06.2019. Ms Anju Nayak underwent this programme with great interest. On many occasions she volunteered herself to do job for the Trainer and learnt every aspect of Beauty culture.

Ms Anju Nayak wanted to start her own parlour but she initially faced the financial crisis as it involved a lot of expenditure on equipment and interiors. With the assistance provided by the organizers and blended with her luck she was selected by one of Khandwa city's top most parlour "Shimmer & Shadow Hair Beauty Makeover where she is getting 5000 Rs. Per month alongwith some incentives. Although Ms Anju Nayak is very hoppy as she is able to earn the bread for her family but her ultimate goal is to have her own full-fledged beauty parlor centre and we can foresee that this day is not very far.
